Privacy collection notice

The Living Room Church collects the information on this form to assess and administer membership, communicate about membership, maintain required Church records and comply with its Constitution and applicable law. Religious-belief information is collected with your consent because it is relevant to membership eligibility. Information may be accessed by the Board, its authorised membership group and authorised administrators, and disclosed where required by law. If required information is not provided, the Church may be unable to determine the application or maintain the required membership record. You may request access to or correction of your information, obtain the Church's privacy policy, or ask the Secretary whether access to your register details can be restricted by contacting: [privacy contact/email].
